Junqueira, formerly with Piquet Realty, has been a broker since 2014 with nearly $45 million in sales volume.

"Precision and dedication [are] crucial in racecar driving and in real estate. I look forward to providing excellent customer service and assisting buyers and sellers achieve their needs with my knowledge of the area," said Junqueira.

The Brazilian-born multilingual broker won Formula One's Formula 3000 International Championship in 2000 and was three-time runner-up in the Champ Car World Series.

Zillow bigwig moving on

Zillow's president of media and marketplaces is parting ways with the listings giant. In a recent LinkedIn post, Greg Schwartz characterized his departure as amicable and praised Zillow's leadership throughout their continued "reinvention."

As for his next steps, Schwartz hinted that he may be getting into local politics in his home city of Seattle. "Our city is soaring with the greatest financial, intellectual and innovation boom in history, yet in many areas we have fallen flat. We can do better," he wrote. "Soon, you will start to hear about a new civic organization with heavyweights from Washington State politics, community advocacy groups and business."

Douglas Elliman to oversee sales for Arte

Israel- and New York-based real estate development firm SC 8955 LLC, a subsidiary of Sapir Corp Ltd., led by Alex Sapi, announced today that Douglas Elliman Development Marketing will assume the role of the exclusive sales and marketing team for the oceanfront boutique condominium, Arte, which is nearing completion.

"We are excited to bring the Douglas Elliman Development Marketing team on board during this next phase of the project as we enter active sales," said Alex Sapi, chairman of Sapir Corp. LTD. "We look forward to revealing the culmination of insightful and curated design and thoughtful construction that is the Arte project to potential buyers."
